

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocab Quiz 2

- |  |                       |
|--|-----------------------|
| 1. branch of philosophy that relates to morals and moral practices                                   | A. advance directives |
| 2. description of specific procedures, actions and processes that are permitted for a professional   | B. palliative care    |
| 3. standards of right and wrong  | C. euthanasia         |
| 4. ethical dilemmas and issues that arise due to advances in medicine                                | D. scope of practice  |
| 5. termination of life to eliminate pain and suffering in a terminally ill person                    | E. clone              |
| 6. care provided to terminally ill patients to alleviate symptoms of pain without curing the disease | F. stem cell          |
| 7. duplicate cell reproduced artificially from a natural original cell                               | G. bioethics          |
| 8. cells that can become any other type of cell needed   | H. ethics             |
| 9. medical programs available to aid terminally ill patients and their families                      | I. morals             |
| 10. Means by which a patients can determine their medical wishes for the future                      | J. hospice            |