

Vocab choice

Across

3. is everything around you
 9. any resource that can be replenished by natural process
 10. consists of the natural resources and ecosystem services that keep humans and other species alive and that supports human economies
 11. is the branch of biology that focuses on how living things interact with the living and non-living parts of their environment

12. the natural services provided by healthy ecosystems that supports life and human economies at no monetary cost

Down

1. exists in a fixed amount or stock and used more quickly that they can be replaced
 2. a resource that is present with unlimited amounts in nature
 4. a social movement dedicated to protecting earth and its resources

5. is an interdisciplinary study of how human interact with the environment
 6. to maintain stability or to adapt to changing environmental conditions indefinitely
 7. is one or more communities of different species interacting with one another and with the chemical and physical factors of their non-living environment
 8. materials and energy sources in natures that are essential or useful to humans