

Vocab week 4 Ch. 44 & 45

Across

- 2. Chemical agent used to prepare a tooth surface for a dental material.
- 7. To remove all moisture from an item, or to dry out.
- 8. Characterized by the release of heat from a chemical reaction.
- 9. Referring to temporary coverage made for crown or bridge preparations and worn during cast preparation.
- 10. Colorless liquid made from clove oil and used for its soothing qualities.

Down

- 1. Preventing the passage of heat or electricity.
- 3. Cement-type substance used to seal a surface.
- 4. To subject a material to the bonding process of two or more monomers.
- 5. To slow down a process.
- 6. To cause something to scatter, or become dispersed, and gradually disappear.