

Vocabulary 3

Across

4. loss of equilibrium attributable to an unstable situation in which some forces outweigh others
 5. the state of not having a job
 7. a tariff imposed to raise revenue
 9. an exchange that occurs as a compromise
 12. restrict the consumption of a relatively scarce commodity
 13. a small and inadequate amount
 17. refusal to have commercial dealings with some organization
 19. the quality of being enduring and free from change
 20. work done by one person or group that benefits another
 21. the commercial exchange of goods and services

22. a consortium formed to limit commercial competition
 24. an organization of employees that bargains with the employer
 25. a public expenditure that is not for goods and services
 27. a market characterized by rising prices for securities
 28. grant of financial assistance, especially by a government
 29. a government monetary authority that issues currency and regulates the supply of credit and holds the reserves of other banks and sells new issues of securities for the government

30. a tariff imposed to protect domestic firms from import competition
Down
 1. a summary of intended expenditures
 2. a registered symbol identifying a product's manufacturer

3. a prescribed number
 6. income that is available to you for saving or spending
 8. a name given to a product or service
 10. depletion or loss of intellectual and technical personnel
 11. an unincorporated business owned by a single person who is responsible for its liabilities and entitled to its profits
 14. making something suitable for a particular purpose
 15. the proportional limitation of production or distribution of something (e.g. crude oil or natural gas) to some fractional part of the total capacity of each producer
 16. a person who uses goods or services
 18. a quantity much larger than is needed
 23. a category of taxpayers based on the amount of their income
 26. offering goods and services for sale