

Vocabulary Activity

Across

2. Easily irritated or annoyed. The girl became fractious when her brother wouldn't go away.
7. Strong feelings of embarrassment. As his chagrin increased, his faced continued to not betray it.
8. A feeling of lack of interest or energy. After a long day, he felt a feeling of lassitude.
9. Unrestrained by convention and morality. He continued to indulge in dissipated habits.
10. Give expression to. A great deal of sympathy was evinced towards them.

Down

1. Grant in a condescending manner. He preferred to vouchsafe the group another glimpse of himself.
3. Make amends for. Almost everyone holds guilt that is difficult for them to expiate.
4. Not genuine. He talked to her in a feigned tone.
5. Presenting favorable circumstances. The moment became propitious, and he met with success.
6. Liveliness and eagerness. The man jumped up with alacrity and continued to follow the group.