

Vocabulary By Saboor

Across

- 4. The classic example of a particular character or person in literature.
- 9. Make sense of; assign a meaning to
- 10. Process by which the writer reveals the personality of a character by telling the reader what the character is like.
- 12. An experienced and trusted adviser.
- 13. End of the story where loose ends are tied up

14. A strong storm with violent winds

15. The one who stands against the hero or main character.

Down

- 1. Submissive or fawning in attitude or behavior
- 2. Process by which the writer reveals the personality of a character through descriptions like how the character looks, sounds or acts.
- 3. Unfriendly and inclined toward anger or irritation

- 5. A literary device used to introduce background information to the reader; the beginning.
- 6. A cruel person whose evil deeds play an important role in the plot.
- 7. The main character, hero or heroine of a literary work.
- 8. Great in size, force, extent, or degree
- 11. The parts of a statement that come before or follow a specific word that help determine the word's meaning.