

Vocabulary Crossword Week 12

Across

2. To persistently try to obtain an object, or bring about an event
 5. tending to cause death; deadly
 7. to contemplate; to consider at length
 11. clever or sharp, particularly in practical affairs
 14. decide; bring to an end; settle conclusively
 15. freedom to act or judge on one's own; the trait of judging wisely and objectively
 18. having or showing arrogant superiority over others; domineering, bossy, arrogant

19. a seemingly absurd or self-contradictory statement that is or may be true
 20. To see something that is not very clear or obvious.
 21. infer from incomplete evidence; suspect
 23. severe disapproval; harsh criticism
 25. servile, obedient

Down

1. a state of extreme happiness
 3. Exactly suitable; appropriate
 4. determined and intense
 6. to avoid, to escape
 8. lack of agreement or harmony

9. promotion, advancement
 10. to deceive, to mislead, to beguile
 12. a natural attraction or feeling of kinship
 13. lewd, vulgar, obscene; showing contempt or disrespect for religion
 16. not clearly understood or expressed
 17. The desire to injure another person; active ill-will or hatred.
 22. conspicuously and outrageously bad; glaring, appalling
 24. in short supply