

Vocabulary List

Across

- 8. to show or represent beforehand by a figure or type; foreshadow.
9. a chief or leader
12. not in accordance with established or accepted doctrines or opinions, especially in theology; unorthodox.
13. expressing sorrow or melancholy; mournful
15. of great weight; heavy; massive.
16. an imaginary island described in Sir Thomas More's Utopia (1516) as enjoying perfection in law, politics, etc.
18. capacity for producing a desired result or effect; effectiveness:

19. to soil; tarnish; discolor.

20. the act of expostulating; remonstrance; earnest and kindly protest:

Down

- 1. agreeable, suitable, or pleasing in nature or character:
2. different in kind; unlike; incongruous.
3. out of the ordinary course of nature; exceptional or abnormal:
4. not diluted or made impure by adulterating; pure:
5. to place between; cause to intervene

6. not variable; not changing or capable of being changed; static or constant.

7. insulting display of contempt in words or actions; contemptuous or humiliating treatment.

10. great warmth and earnestness of feeling:

11. acuteness of mental discernment and soundness of judgment.

14. a door, gate, or entrance, especially one of imposing appearance, as to a palace.

17. leaving no opportunity for denial or refusal; imperative: