

Vocabulary Social Studies

Across

2. a hereditary commander-in-chief in feudal Japan
3. a poor farmer of low social status who owns or rents a small piece of land for cultivation
5. (in feudal Japan) one of the great lords who were vassals of the shogun.
10. an agricultural laborer bound under the feudal system to work on his lord's estate
12. a member of a powerful military caste in feudal Japan, especially a member of the class of military retainers of the daimyos

13. a man of high social standing who owns and lives on an estate in a rural area, especially the chief landowner in such an area.

14. (in the Middle Ages) a man who served his sovereign or lord as a mounted soldier in armor.

16. a large building or group of buildings fortified against attack with thick walls, battlements, towers, and in many cases a moat.

Down

1. the quality of being loyal to someone or something.

4. A manor house was historically the main residence of the lord of the manor.

6. a holder of land by feudal tenure on conditions of homage and allegiance

7. the code of honor and morals developed by the Japanese samurai.

8. an estate of land, especially one held on condition of feudal service.

9. the dominant social system in medieval Europe,

11. belonging to a hereditary class with high social or political status; aristocratic.

15. . a compulsory contribution to state revenue, levied by the government on workers' income and business profits or added to the cost of some goods, services, and transactions