

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Study: Lessons 5 and 6

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| 1. Friendly; peaceable. | A. complacent |
| 2. In love with; charmed by | B. dysentery |
| 3. Hateful; distasteful | C. enamored |
| 4. Strong, irrational fear. | D. covet |
| 5. Fear of water | E. appease |
| 6. Fear or hatred of what is strange or foreign, or of foreigners | F. Phobia |
| 7. To calm; to satisfy by making concessions or giving into demands | G. pacific |
| 8. Peaceful; serene | H. empathy |
| 9. To calm; to make quiet. To end war or violence | I. placate |
| 10. Lack of feeling, energy, or interest. Indifference | J. apathy |
| 11. The ability to identify with someone else and understand that person's situation of feeling | K. pathos |
| 12. a feeling of sympathy; a quality that arouses pity or tenderness. | L. dyslexia |
| 13. Hatred of women | M. xenophobia |
| 14. severe diarrhea | N. pacify |
| 15. a specific learning disability that is neurological in origin. It is a deficit in the phonological component of language and is characterized by poor spelling and decoding abilities. | O. hydrophobia |
| 16. To crave or desire, especially something belonging to someone else | P. amicable |
| 17. Greed; avarice | Q. cupidity |
| 18. Self-satisfied; smug | R. misogyny |
| 19. To calm; to pacify; to appease | S. odious |