

Vocabulary

Across

- 3. a person who precedes another in office/position/etc
7. a small group of secret plotters against the government or authority figures
8. the act of speaking aloud in an oratorical manner
10. fervor for a person cause or object

Word Bank

resurgence
 malady
 palpable

folly
 vice cabals

zeal erroneously predecessors

convulse
 requisite declamations

- 11. the state of being foolish, lack of understanding or sense

- 12. containing error

Down

- 1. an immoral or evil habit or practice
2. required or necessary for a particular purpose or position

- 4. rising or tending to rise again

- 5. to shake violently or agitate

- 6. readily or plainly seen heard or perceived

- 9. any disorder or disease of the body