

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary

Across

- 5. extremely angry, furious
- 7. to express sympathy or sorrow
- 9. to explode or cause to explode
- 12. clear, see through
- 15. not possessing reason
- 16. a loud racket, a din, a loud noise
- 22. something that follows, a continuation
- 23. the first public appearance of a person or thing
- 29. a brief outline or general overview
- 30. to free from bondage or oppression
- 31. unprejudiced, not biased
- 34. to vary irregularly
- 35. to cause to become absorbed into
- 36. to feel or express great, often malicious pleasure of self satisfaction
- 37. full of apprehension
- 39. resistance or disinclination to motion, action, or change
- 41. to set right, correct

- 45. lacking conscious awareness, lacking all memory
- 46. a dictionary
- 47. marked by great joy or jubilation
- 48. to postpone or cancel
- 49. to make clear the meaning of
- 50. unrelated to the matter at hand

Down

- 1. a measure of motion
- 2. needlessly repetitive
- 3. to cut short; abbreviate
- 4. to come in rough contact while moving; pushing, shoving
- 6. a muslim house of worship
- 8. belongs to the person, cant be transferred to another
- 10. a violation or infraction, as of a law or a promise
- 11. to ruin through clumsiness
- 13. the quality or condition of power
- 14. elaborately, heavily decorated
- 17. incapable of failing

- 18. long time close friend or companion
- 19. strong and deep tone
- 20. lacking resources or the means of survival
- 21. the act of imposing, an unfair demand
- 24. a place or situation of noisy uproar and confusion
- 25. to find fault or criticize for petty reasons
- 26. extremely small in size
- 27. obvious
- 28. a break in friendly relations
- 32. not duly attentive
- 33. sadness or depression of the spirits
- 38. a man who rules a family, tribe, or clan
- 40. one chosen to judge or decide a disputed issue
- 42. to cause persistent irritation
- 43. modest and reserved in manner or behavior
- 44. to prohibit or forbid