

Vocabulary

Across

3. the experimental units assigned to a baseline treatment level
 4. When groups of experimental units are similar
 5. A treatment known to have no effect
 6. a retrospective or prospective study subjects are randomly assigned
 8. In which type of study do you observe ?

11. when the levels of one factor are associated with the levels of another factor

13. What is it called when you manipulate factors?

14. when an observed difference is too large for us to believe

Down

1. What is the process, intervention, or other controlled circumstance applied to randomly assigned experimental units called?

2. to be valid an experiment must be assigned experimental units to treatment groups

7. A variable whose levels are compared across different treatments

9. two main classes of individual who can affect the outcome of an experiment

10. those who could influence the results

12. Any individual associated with an experiment

15. What variables are compared across different treatments ?