

Vocabulary exercise

Across

- 5. A public meeting or march protesting against something or expressing views on a political issue.
- 7. A small group of people within a community or country, differing from the main population in race, religion, language, or political persuasion.
- 8. A large hole in the ground.

10. Showing a desire to resist authority, control, or convention.

11. Showing a feeling of opposition, dislike or unfriendly.

12. The ideas, attitudes, and activities that are shared by most people and regarded as normal or conventional.

Down

1. An official representing a country aboard.

2. A group of vehicles traveling together.

3. A business or company.

4. The process in which individuals are blocked or denied from various rights, opportunities and recourses that are normally available members of a different group.

6. To have an effect on something; make a difference to.

9. The typical pattern of behavior of a person or group.