

Vocabulary for Expository Writing

Across

8. a sentence that tells the main idea of a paragraph; it is usually the first sentence of the paragraph

9. person or document that supplies information

10. to take someone else's work or ideas and pass them off as your own

Down

1. words and phrases that provide a connection between ideas, sentences, and paragraphs

2. a kind of writing which informs, explains, or describes something

3. information that can be used to prove something

4. a note of explanation or comment added to a text

5. a sentence in the introduction of an essay that states the writer's position on a topic; also known as the central idea

6. closely connected/appropriate for what is being considered

7. a line or lines designed to grab a reader's attention; usually at the beginning of an essay