

Vocabulary for Fall Semester

Across

- 1. self-analysis(noun) ex: The ___ of one's soul invokes deep, hidden emotions.
- 3. disgrace(noun) ex: The lying son was a ___ to his honest family.
- 7. building(noun) ex: The ___s of the twin towers no longer exists, but the memory of 9/11 lives on.
- 10. prompt or incite(verb) ex: In order to ___ a negative reaction, he proposed an idea opposing her morals.
- 12. beyond what is normal or unnatural(adverb) ex: She ___ charmed her way through life.
- 13. reject(verb) ex: To ___ a public proposal is to break the proposer's heart and humiliate the proposer all at once.
- 15. roaming(adjective) ex: ___ missionaries spread religion everywhere they go.

- 17. shaking or quivering slightly(adjective) ex: During a panic attack, the ___ body may frighten onlookers.
- 18. wisdom or mental acuteness(noun) ex: The ___ of a therapist decides their significance.
- 19. inappropriate(adjective) ex: The bad boy used ___ language in school.
- 20. abstinence from sexual activity(noun) ex: ___ until marriage is an important Catholic standard.

Down

- 2. speculative(adjective) ex: The ___ idea of feminism is a hot topic for young men and women.
- 4. a person's face(noun) ex: In a dream, a diseased lover's ___ may provide comfort.

- 5. outward behavior or attitude(noun) ex: Her ___ was determined and focused when she was told she could not ace her research paper.
- 6. honoring(noun) ex: The ___ of death is a funeral.
- 8. future generations(noun) ex: The ___ of the people's morals and opinions are shaped by past generations.
- 9. intangible or unsubstantial(adjective) ex: The ___ ideas of life and death are explored by philosophers.
- 11. scolded(verb) ex: When the child was ___ for stealing candy, he vowed to never steal again.
- 14. disaster or tragedy(noun) ex: The ___ of school shootings is a nationwide sadness.
- 16. induced or stimulated(verb) ex: Emotions of fear and happiness were ___ when he realized he loved her.