

Vocabulary for writing about an action-packed disaster/rescue

Across

3. Of an object/thing, to water something with a liquid substance.
6. Of an object/thing, to rush violently ; to move with great speed.
8. The present tense of the verb to set fire to a substance.
9. A herbivore of the scientific name "Camponotus pennsylvanicus"
10. To plunge into water, especially headfirst.
11. Small loose particles of grain or sand.

Down

1. The present tense of the verb to call or cry out loudly and vigorously.
2. The present tense of the verb to go faster than as usual.
4. The present tense of the verb to break something.
5. A gas substance that can be dangerous if inhaled
7. The present tense of the verb causing or uttering a high pitched sound