

Vocabulary in 'Notes From a Small Island' by Bill Bryson

Across

3. In paragraph one, not semi-detached houses but...
8. In paragraph five, an adjective meaning 'random'
10. The word in the first paragraph meaning 'the outer districts of a town or city'.
11. The paragraph one adjective which describes the streets of London
14. In paragraph two, the noun which means someone selling tickets at inflated prices to tourists
16. A noun in paragraph three synonymous with 'stupidity'

17. An adjective in paragraph four synonymous with 'polite'

18. The second town in Kent which Bryson mentions

Down

1. A verb in paragraph three which means 'argue with'
2. The noun in paragraph one suggesting that London is a vast city.
4. According to Bryson in paragraph two, this place is a magnet for beggars.
5. In paragraph five, an adjective meaning 'pleasant' or 'appealing'

6. A noun in paragraph two synonymous with 'beggars'.

7. A noun in paragraph five meaning 'manners'.

9. A dismissive adjective in paragraph three used to denigrate one of England's greatest writers.

12. A synonym in paragraph three for 'enchanted' or 'spellbinding'

13. This colour is used paragraph one to suggest tedium or dreariness

15. An adjective in paragraph three synonymous with 'self-important'