

Vocabulary lesson 1 and 2

Across

- 2. an avenger, unbeatable rival, a person who punishes another for evil deeds
- 5. matter of fact; ordinary; commonplace
- 6. strongly satirical writing
- 8. sluggish; indifferent; calm
- 9. delicate skill to bing about with skill
- 11. in a sate of mental conflict; agitated; crazed
- 13. acceptable behavior; conformity with conventional standards

- 15. hopelessly low; wretched; miserable; without self respect
 - 17. hazy; vague; not clearly defined
 - 18. sad or mournful
 - 19. in proper proportion; having the same scale, measure, or size; proportionate
 - 20. to attack with abusive language; to call insulting names
- Down
- 1. villainous; infamous; having a bad reputation
 - 3. to reprove mildly and kindly, but seriously; to caution or warn; to urge

- 4. a mild expression used in place of a harsh, crude, or distasteful expression
- 7. quarrelsome; hostile; inclined to fighting
- 10. to steal
- 12. done in a smooth offhand manner
- 14. a fictitious name assumed by an author
- 16. commonplace, trite; stale from overuse

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|--------------|------------|-----------|-----------|------------|
| pseudonym | lampoon | euphemism | nefarious | Lugubrious |
| nemesis | Glib | abject | propriety | admonish |
| Finesse | distraught | prosaic | bellicose | purloins |
| commensurate | phlegmatic | banal | nebulous | reviled |