

Vocabulary test

Across

2. 1. of considerable importance, size, or worth. 2. concerning the essentials of something. 3. real and tangible rather than imaginary.
6. (n) A liquid used as a drink
8. To honor something in a special way

10. (v) 1. To cause to know; to make known by name. 2. To bring to the attention of, especially for the first time.
11. (v) To leave; to go away from a place
12. to make familiar

Down

1. v. 1. To awaken. to wake up. 2. To stir up; to excite.- The past of Rouse
3. the time during which something continues

4. of very great size or extent; huge or enormous
5. (verb) to tempt or attract with the promise of something good: (noun) 1. something that attracts (noun) 2. artificial bait used for fishing
7. to fly high in the sky. The past of Soar
9. adj. excellent of its kind higher in position or rank. n. a person of higher rank.