

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary words

Across
 1. Basic equipment needed for a business or society to operate is the general term for the basic physical systems of a business, area, or nation for instance, transportation systems, communication networks, sewage, water, and electric systems are all examples of basic equipment needed for a business or society to operate.

5. The accusing of a crime while in office of Andrew Johnson was started on February 24, 1868, when the United States House of Representatives promised to accuse of a crime while in office Andrew Johnson, the 17th president of the United States, for "high crimes and crimes," which were described in 11 articles of accusing of a crime while in office.

7. The 14th Change to the U.S. Constitution, approved in 1868, granted living in a country you were born in, or having the same rights in a country as someone who was born there to all people born or made a citizen in the United States including former slaves and promised that something will definitely happen or that something will definitely work as described all people (who lawfully live in a country, state, "equal protection of the laws," one of three changes passed during the Reconstruction time in history to permanently end slavery and establish

11. extreme Reconstruction. The Huge Republicans believed blacks were entitled to the same political rights and opportunities as whites. They also believed that the Confederate leaders should be punished for their roles in the Civil War.

13. The term "people who suddenly show up and want power and success" refers to Northerners Who moved to the South after the Civil War, during Reconstruction. Many people who suddenly show up and want power and success were said to have moved South for their own related to managing money and political gains. Scalawags were white Southerners who cooperated politically with black people who used to be slaves and Northern newcomers.

16. The Enforcement Act of 1870, also known as the Civil Rights Act of 1870 or First Ku Klux Klan Act, or Force Act was a United States federal law written to give power to the President with the legal authority to enforce the first section of the Fifteenth Amendment throughout the United States.

Down

2. The length of time at work or in government to permanent employment of Office Act was allotted States federal law in force from 1867 to 1867 that was meant to restrict the power of the president to remove certain office-holders without the approval of the Senate.

4. The Reconstruction Acts of 1867 laid out the process for readmitting Southern states into the Union. The Fourteenth Amendment (1868) gave former slaves with national living in a country you were born in, or having the same rights in a country as someone who was born there, and the Fifteenth Amendment (1870) granted black men the right to vote.

6. people who used to be slaves's Bureau, (1865-72), during the Reconstruction period after the American Civil War, popular name for the U.S. Bureau of people who have run away from their own countries because of bad treatment, people who used to be slaves, and Left alone Lands, established by Congress to provide practical aid to 4,000,000 newly freed African Americans their change from one thing to another from slavery to freedom.

8. Transjugular intrahepatic portosystemic shunt (TIPS) is a procedure that may be used to reduce portal hypertension and its complications, especially variceal bleeding. TIPS procedure may be done by a radiologist, who places a small wire-mesh coil (stent) into a liver vein.

10. The 13th amendment to the United States Constitution provides that "Neither not by choice slavery, except as a punishment for crime of which the party will have been duly convicted, will exist within the United States, or any place subject to their legal control/area of legal control."

12. person or business who occupies a house, office, farming is a farming-based production system in which landowners give their land and offers a measure of operating capital and management, while person or business who occupies a house, office, farmers add their labor along with at times different amounts of capital and management

14. A farm worker paid with a share of crop profits is someone who would farm land that belonged to a landowner... Following the Civil War, large farms with crop owners were unable to farm their land. They did not have slaves or money to pay a free labor force, so a system where farm workers were paid a share of crop profits developed as a system that could benefit large farms with crop owners and former slaves.

15. Lack codes were serving to severely limit or control laws designed to limit the freedom of African Americans and make sure of their availability as a cheap labor force after slavery was permanently stopped during the Civil War. Extreme anger over black codes helped interfere with support for President Andrew Johnson and the Republican Party.

4. The Reconstruction Acts of 1867 laid out the process for readmitting Southern states into the Union. The Fourteenth Amendment (1868) gave former slaves with national living in a country you were born in, or having the same rights in a country as someone who was born there, and the Fifteenth Amendment (1870) granted black men the right to vote.

6. people who used to be slaves's Bureau, (1865-72), during the Reconstruction period after the American Civil War, popular name for the U.S. Bureau of people who have run away from their own countries because of bad treatment, people who used to be slaves, and Left alone Lands, established by Congress to provide practical aid to 4,000,000 newly freed African Americans their change from one thing to another from slavery to freedom.

8. Transjugular intrahepatic portosystemic shunt (TIPS) is a procedure that may be used to reduce portal hypertension and its complications, especially variceal bleeding. TIPS procedure may be done by a radiologist, who places a small wire-mesh coil (stent) into a liver vein.

9. Many freed people believed, after being told by different political figures, that they had a right to own the land they had long worked as slaves, and were eager to control their own property. Freed people widely expected to legally claim 40 acres of land about 200 feet X 220 feet of land a quarter-quarter section and a mule after the end of the war.

10. The 13th amendment to the United States Constitution provides that "Neither not by choice slavery, except as a punishment for crime of which the party will have been duly convicted, will exist within the United States, or any place subject to their legal control/area of legal control."

12. person or business who occupies a house, office, farming is a farming-based production system in which landowners give their land and offers a measure of operating capital and management, while person or business who occupies a house, office, farmers add their labor along with at times different amounts of capital and management

14. A farm worker paid with a share of crop profits is someone who would farm land that belonged to a landowner... Following the Civil War, large farms with crop owners were unable to farm their land. They did not have slaves or money to pay a free labor force, so a system where farm workers were paid a share of crop profits developed as a system that could benefit large farms with crop owners and former slaves.

15. Lack codes were serving to severely limit or control laws designed to limit the freedom of African Americans and make sure of their availability as a cheap labor force after slavery was permanently stopped during the Civil War. Extreme anger over black codes helped interfere with support for President Andrew Johnson and the Republican Party.

Word Bank

- President Johnson's Impeachment
- Freedmen's Bureau:
- Sharecropping
- Tenure of Office Act:
- tips
- Black codes:

- Carpenters and scalawags:
- infrastructure
- Radical Reconstruction:
- Reconstruction Act of 1867:
- 14th Amendment

- The Ku Klux Klan
- 13th Amendment
- 15th Amendment
- Tenant Farming:
- 40 acres and a mule