

WORKING WHILE DISABLED

Across

3. Disability benefits cannot be ceased based on a beneficiary's work activity during this period
5. What must be issued once someone reports a change in work activity or earnings
6. The month of disability cessation; and, the two succeeding months following the month of disability cessation
8. A person can apply for this when their medical condition no longer permits them to perform substantial gainful activity (SGA) within 60 months of their prior termination.

11. An important planning tool for disability beneficiaries
12. The --- is the first month that disability benefits cannot be paid after the EPE re-entitlement period
13. A free and voluntary program that can help Social Security beneficiaries go to work, get a good job that may lead to a career, and become financially independent, all while they keep their Medicare or Medicaid

Down

1. When someone reports a change in work activity or earnings for a beneficiary receiving title II or title XVI disability benefits

2. WHAT CAN BE PAID UP TO SIX MONTHS
4. The first 36 months after the TWP is called the _____ period.
7. When a beneficiary returns to SGA after the 36 month re-entitlement period, eligibility for Title II payments _____.
9. What is the period between the initial EXR entitlement month and the attainment of a total of 24 qualifying months (not necessarily consecutive) that make the individual eligible for a TWP
10. A consecutive 36-month period that follows your TWP