

WW2: heroes & rogues and some things.

Across

2. Leader of the British nation during world war 2.
 8. He was the actual creator of the Nazi party.
 13. This was the physical location in New Mexico where the world's first atomic bomb was tested?
 14. Hitler's half sister and mother of Geli.
 16. Head of the German Reserve Army who had assassinate suspects shot to hide his own involvement. He played both sides.
 18. Early leader and creator of the SA, later killed on orders of Hitler.
 20. The actual abbreviation of the Nazi party.
 24. Commanding general in charge of the Manhattan Project.
 25. New style of warfare created by the Germans of rapid mobility.
 26. This term means to adopt and make as your own as opposed to conquer
 27. He was the overall leader of the greatly feared SS.

28. Medal of Honor recipient who was a medic and conscience objector.

Down

1. This was the European country which Hitler invaded in 1939 which caused U.K. and France to declare war.
 3. Hitler's mistress and then one and only wife for about two days before committing suicide.
 4. The American general in charge as the Supreme Commander of all Allied troops in Europe.
 5. France, UK, America and others were referred to as this group.
 6. Hitler's half niece whom he had an affair with. She later committed suicide.
 7. German journalist who wrote articles against Hitler during the 1920s and was eventually killed for it.
 9. Primary Russian (Soviet) general who led forces against Germany with great success. Include his rank/title.

10. Physical place (town) of the greatest British U.K. defeat by the Germans early in the beginning of the war.

11. German Colonel who led the assassination attempt on July 20, 1944 referred to as Valkyrie.
 12. He was in charge of the infamous SD of the SS directly under Himmler's command. Most feared man in Europe.
 15. American president who made the decision to use the atomic bomb on Japan.
 17. Fascist leader of Italy during world war 2.
 19. The lead Ph.D. scientist of the Manhattan project to create a nuclear bomb.
 21. Name for the powers on the German side. It included Germany, Italy and Japan
 22. Place of the WW1 forced treaty upon the Germans and also where Germans forced the French to surrender in WW2.
 23. He was the German general who would assume the role of president of Germany after Hitler was killed. Highly respected.