

Name: _____

Date: _____

Water

Across

- 2. Something that can be remade.
- 6. An overflow of a large amount of water.
- 9. Something that cannot be remade.
- 11. When liquid is turned into water vapor.
- 13. When water soaks into the soil and moves through cracks in rocks or trough pores.
- 14. Water escaping the groundwater zone through soil that has pores.

- 15. When water is drained from soil.
- 16. The capacity of a rock to transmit water under pressure.
- 18. When moisture is carried to the small pores of the underside of leaves where it changes to vapor and is released to the atmosphere.
- 20. When salt is extracted from water.

Down

- 1. The water loss that occurred in both transpiration and evaporation.

- 3. A large wave caused by earthquakes or other disturbances.
- 4. When water vapor turns into water.
- 5. Water that is stored underground.
- 7. When hail, snow, sleet or rain falls to the ground.
- 8. A supply that is very vital for survival.
- 10. Frozen pellets of rain.
- 12. Water in its solid form.
- 17. A body of flowing water.
- 19. The condensed moisture in the atmosphere falling visibly.