

Name: _____

Date: _____

Water Quality

- |   |                         |
|---|-------------------------|
| 1. Increasing in occurrence with rising temperatures                              | A. Water Quality        |
| 2. The amount of people who are at risk of exposure to algal blooms               | B. 40 million           |
| 3. Places where most people come into contact with algae                          | C. Algae                |
| 4. Man driven change to the global weather patterns over time                     | D. Precipitation        |
| 5. Amount of people in the USA who use well water                                 | E. 50 million           |
| 6. Pathogen that can cause respiratory failure                                    | F. Waterborne pathogens |
| 7. Known to cause 8-12.5% of gastrointestinal illnesses                           | G. Climate change       |
| 8. Can be found in toxic levels in shellfish                                      | H. Algal blooms         |
| 9. Measured by monitoring systems, important for all people, protected by the EPA | I. Drinking water       |
| 10. Projected to be more erratic as time goes by, and more extreme                | J. Cyanobacteria        |