

We The People

Across

9. Fundamental rights such as life, liberty, and property
11. The war between the Northern and Southern states.
12. The bringing of lower court to a higher court
13. The delegates to the Philadelphia Conventions of 1787
16. A person chose to act for or represent others
17. The political leaders of the thirteen colonies.
19. The good of the community as a whole.

20. Any form of money used in a nation.

Down

1. Basic rights and freedoms said to belong to all people everywhere
2. The idea that each state should have the same number of representatives in Congress
3. Buying and selling of goods, particularly large scale.
4. A way to settle difference by each side giving up some of its claims or demands.
5. The national legislature of the United States

6. To formally put an end to.
7. Fundamental rights belonging to every member of society
8. To formally put and end to
10. The advisors to the president who are the heads of the department of executive branch.
14. One of the two houses of Congress
15. The first ten amendments to the Constitution.
18. A form of government in which political power is exercised by all citizens.