

Name: _____

Weather

Across

5. You need food, shelter, and _____ to survive.
6. What helps the trees blow leaves off in the fall season?
8. What type of weathering is it when there is a chemical breakdown of rocks by natural processes in the environment?
9. What is the natural process where environmental agents disintegrate and decompose rocks?
10. What process transports soil and sediment from one location to another using wind, water, ice, or gravity?

Down

1. When a material combines with oxygen to form a new material it is called _____?
2. When rain, sleet, or snow contains high levels of acids it is referred to as _____?
3. What is the mechanical breakdown of rocks into smaller pieces due to the weather?
4. What is the process by which rocks are reduced in size by the scraping action of other rocks?
7. Rain and sunshine help make _____ grow.