Name: _____ Date: _____

Web Design

Across

6. Application that allows us to view and surf the web
8. Style property used to add spacing between content and border
10. The item that specifies the location of the website on the internet
12. Move around the site
14. The recommended measurement units for web design

Down

1. A user-friendly interface to the internet and quick access to documents
2. A group designation for . defining the typefaces used in CSS
3. Computer where websites are hosted
4. A link from one web page to another, either on the same site or another one
5. Front end of a web application

7. A set of markup characters that are used around an element to indicate its start and end.
9. The primary content element of a web page all contain that will be seen when the user loads the webpage.
11. A single document, generally written in HTML/XHTML, meant to be viewed in a web browser.
13. A markup language responsible for the visual elements of a website.