Name: _____ Date: _____

Web Design Review

1. What you see is what you get	A. Broken link
2. Empty space between design elements	B. pixels
3. Every computer connected to the Internet has this address	C. Host
4. A page that offers links to all pages in a website	D. Layout
5. A transparency image format for web	E. Soft copy
6. Dots that make up an image on a computer monitor	F. Folder
7. A type of web authoring software that does not require html knowledge	G. Content Management
8. A website that remains online, but not maintained/updated	H.
9. Editable files	I. Index
10. Fancy advanced features	J. Browser
11. The way elements are arranged on a page	K. site map
12. Person for whom the site is built for	L. wysiwyg
13. Home page of a web site	M. Public domain
14. No copyright exists on this material	N. Bandwidth
15. Last part of domain such as .org or .gov	O. IP
16. HTML tag for bold	P. <!DOCTYPE html>
17. Right clicking the desktop can help create a	Q.
18. Software used to access web pages	R. Navigation
19. Maximum amount of data that a connection can transfer	S. Bells and whistles
20. HTML tag for a paragraph	T. Ghost Site
21. Company that provides the web server	U. png
22. Request for a file on a website, not the same as a visit	V. End User
23. All web pages start with this	W. white space
24. A bar that contains the site menu	X. Hit
25. This produces a"404" error (not found)	Y. Extention