

Week 7: Measurement Crossword

Across

5. the term for an unknown or changeable quantity, represented by a letter or pronomeral

6. the measurement of the size of a flat surface is called the...

8. when measuring how much ice cream there is in a container, we would measure this in

9. the boundary of a closed geometrical figure

11. $P=2(l+w)$ – this is a formula for perimeter for which shape?

13. when measuring a persons mass you would measure this in...

14. there are 1000kg in a metric ...

Down

1. 200cm and 2m are...

2. cm^2 and m^2 is used to represent _____ units

3. the amount that something can hold is also referred to as its

4. the unit of measurement we would use to measure the width of your fingernail

7. a metric unit of capacity equal to a million litres

10. a measure of distance

12. an algebraic form containing an = sign