

What is Zoology?

Across

2. Process used to group and name all living things.
5. The two-name system used by scientists to name animals.
10. Shape of a birds wing.
12. The class used for birds.
14. The class used for animals the have fur, give birth to babies, and nurse their babies with mother's milk.
15. The difference between the air pressure around the top and bottom of a wing.

16. The force that tends to slow a flying creature.

17. Animals that have a backbone.

19. Things that change in an experiment.

20. The pressing of the air around you as you move.

Down

1. Built in need to do something for survival.

3. An object that can travel though the air without a lot of drag.

4. Animals that are dying out and might become extinct.

6. When all of one type of animal dies.

7. Animals that have no backbone.

8. Places animals live.

9. Phylum used if you have a spine

11. The study of the animals God made.

13. Blending in so well that you are hard to see.

18. The force made when a bird flaps its wings.