

What's Growing in the Garden

Across

2. These dirt loving root veggies can be used to make french fries.

5. This leafy treat makes a great salad.

8. This plant grows yellow fruit on a really tall stalk and is sometimes used to make popcorn.

11. This green veggie looks like a cluster of tiny little trees.

12. This green leafy plant is loved by Popeye.

13. These little green fruits are grown in pods on trailing vines.

14. This smelly bulb can bring tears to your eyes when you cut into it.

Down

1. This purple veggie grows underground.

3. This long green squash is great grilled or even used in baking.

4. These giant orange fruits grow on long vines just in time for Halloween.

6. These orange veggies grow deep in the soil and have a big crunch.

7. These long green fruits can be used to make pickles.

9. These plants, like the pea, also grows fruit inside of long pods. The pods are usually green but can also be yellow and purple.

10. These red juicy fruits grow on a tall stalk from little yellow flowers.