

What's in the news?

Across

7. A periodical publication containing written information about current events and is often typed in black ink with a white or gray background.

8. Anything left behind or stuck.

9. Happen again.

10. Left the place.

12. A piece of writing included with others in a newspaper, magazine, or other publication.

13. A line in a newspaper naming the writer of an article.

Down

1. Significantly a lot.

2. Moved from one area to another.

3. The title of the article.

4. Another one, a substitute.

5. The total number of people living in an area.

6. A heavy defeat of a sporting opponent.

11. Lost one's focus.

Word Bank

Migrated

Thrashing

Newspaper

Population

By-line

Distracted

Considerably

Article

Alternative

Stranded

Headline

Recur

Evacuated