

Whodunit Crossword

Across

- 3. action that is thought to be morally wrong.
- 4. the period of Queen Victoria's reign
- 6. rigid or stiff behavior to comply with the etiquette
- 9. the skillful handling, controlling, or using something or someone
- 11. intentional killing of another human being
- 12. tool designed to do/ prevent physical harm.
- 14. example of something occurring
- 15. plan of action designed to achieve a certain goal.
- 16. action of betraying something or somebody
- 18. an action punishable by law
- 19. face-to-face encounter
- 27. admit to be guilty of a crime.
- 31. a medium used to exchange
- 32. 221B _____
- 34. the application of science to criminal law
- 40. opposite of straightened
- 42. legal term for homicide
- 45. showing courage or resolve
- 46. an overused stereotype
- 47. civil force working for the government to maintain public order.
- 48. " you want a revolution? I want a _____! So listen to my declaration..." #hamilton
- 49. a person harmed, hurt, or killed

- 50. A secret plan, usually involving a group to do something unlawful

Down

- 1. something that is difficult or impossible to solve.
- 2. Female english writer known for her detective novels and short stories, particularly those revolving around Miss Marple.
- 5. a dead body
- 7. reason that lead to the action
- 8. when a story is told or recounted instead of shown
- 10. declare the punishment decided for an offender
- 13. a formal setting with the authority to judge disputes
- 17. a story told at two different points in time
- 20. who done it?
- 21. having the impression that someone is doing something wrong
- 22. evidence that someone was elsewhere when the crime was committed
- 23. giving the wrong impression or idea
- 24. something that furnishes proof.
- 25. action of adapting something/somebody
- 26. book that has cardboard as cover
- 28. substance that can cause illness or death.
- 29. a person whose occupation is to investigate and solve crimes
- 30. latin for what comes next? Quo _____

- 33. famous fictional detective created by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

- 35. an assistant of the person committing a crime
- 36. characteristics that determines who or what the person do.
- 37. the opposite of innocent
- 38. period of darkness each day.
- 39. person who remained after a specific event.
- 41. attention given to something or someone by the media
- 43. a form of deception
- 44. a piece of evidence used to solve a crime