

Name: _____ Date: _____

Winn Dixie chapters 21-26

- |                                                                   |                |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| 1. decorated with frills, ruffled                                 | A. spells      |
| 2. heavy rainfall                                                 | B. drizzle     |
| 3. traditional story that explains a supernatural person or event | C. potions     |
| 4. thin crinkled paper mostly used for decorations                | D. strum       |
| 5. light rain                                                     | E. crepe paper |
| 6. sweeping the thumb across the strings of an instrument         | F. complicated |
| 7. soft, wavering light                                           | G. shimmer     |
| 8. calm, mild in temperment                                       | H. downpour    |
| 9. extremely                                                      | I. plumb       |
| 10. magical charm                                                 | J. myths       |
| 11. many parts or elements                                        | K. gentle      |
| 12. liquid with healing or magical properties                     | L. frilly      |