

Wk 12 Hematopoietic Drugs

Across

3. Prednisone is a common type of this drug class.

9. Tx of HIV is called ART. What does the "T" stand for:

10. Pt who undergo organ transplant will always be on meds like Imuran that will cause this problem.

12. Your pt is receiving basiliximab and develops Cytokine Release Syndrome. You would expect to see:

13. CMV is an opportunistic infection that can cause blurred vision, pneumonia (PNA) or dementia. This antiviral is one type of medication to treat CMV.

15. T Cells and Lymphocytes are a critical role to the _____ response.

18. These type of infections are common in AIDS pts and refer to infections that take advantage of the immunocompromised condition.

19. Many of the antivirals used for HIV adversely affect which body organ?

20. When WBC are low this is often called: (review chart on 426)

Down

1. HIV can lead to AIDS. What does the "ID" stand for:

2. When starting on immunosuppressive therapy this is called _____ therapy.

4. Bactrim DS is a common antibacterial used for UTI's and pneumocystis jiroveci from immunosuppressive treatments. What are the initials that represent Bactrim DS.

5. Alinia (nitazoxanide) can be given to treat this OI for parasites.

6. T cells are created in this body organ.

7. Bone marrow stem cells are known as:

8. This particular drug is used as a 'swish & swallow' for fungal oral infections.

11. Chemical name for Retrovir, in this name we see the word "Retro" for the type of virus and "Vir" as it is an antiviral.

14. This particular ART drug is known for causing kidney stones (nephrolithiasis).

16. HIV is an RNA _____ virus.

17. Which virus has been associated with posttransplant lymphoproliferative disorder? _____-Barr virus

Word Bank

cryptosporidiosis

neutropenia

nystatin

Immunodeficiency

Immune

opportunistic

Zidovudine

Retro

Liver

induction

Corticosteroids

ganciclovir

immunosuppression

Epstein

Therapy

lymphoblasts

thymus

chills tmpsmz

Indinavir