

Women in Science

Across

- 2. How did men's views of women change during the scientific revolution?
- 3. Where did most women learn astronomy?
- 8. What did Vesalius see that showed women were like men?
- 10. Women that were interested in science had to obtain what type of education?
- 11. What did Maria Merian learn from working in her father's workshop?
- 13. Women during the middle ages were known to be more?

16. Who published her books, Observations upon Experimental Philosophy and Grounds of Natural Philosophy in 1668?

18. What society did Maria Winkelmann have a difficult time with?

Down

- 1. What was Margeret Cavendish excluded from?
- 4. Who married Germany's foremost astronomer, Gottfried Kirch?
- 5. What were some women permitted to have during the seventeenth century?

6. What did German female scientists participate in during the late 17th century?

7. How did midwives acquire their skills?

9. What type of women were allowed to study during the Renaissance period?

12. Why were women treated like second class according to males?

14. Who's famous work, included, the Metamorphosis of the Insects of Surinam?

15. What female scientist lived from 1623 to 1673?

17. Winkelmann, after the death of her husband, was an assistant for who?