

Women's Health

Across

3. science of life

4. a person that helps deliver a baby

6. a term that means 'before birth'

9. the state of being free from illness or injury

11. starts when cells in the breast begin to grow out of control

13. a systematically organized body of knowledge on a particular subject

14. pursuing a profession outside of home

15. the disease caused by an uncontrolled division of abnormal cells in a part of the body

16. a very young child, especially one newly or recently born, that is a few weeks old

18. the liquid that surrounds a baby in the uterus (also called 'waters')

20. a medical specialist who administers anesthetics

Down

1. when a mother decides to end a pregnancy (IE: this can be done surgical procedure or done by taking a discription

2. the often strong and painful tightening of the uterus during labor that causes the woman's cervix to dilate

5. when the mother gives her baby milk from her breast

7. a person who is studying or has expert knowledge of one or more of the natural or physical sciences

8. starts when cells in the breast begin to grow out of control

10. the leaking of blood and other materials from the lining of the uterus occurring in mature women

12. is a disease that occurs when your blood glucose, also called blood sugar, is too high

17. a permit from an authority to own or use something, do a particular thing, or carry on a trade; IE) practice medicine

19. a benign tumor of muscular and fibrous tissues, typically developing in the wall of the uterus

Word Bank

diabetes

amniotic fluid

newborn

anaesthetist

science

abortion

fibroid

scientist

healthy

cancer

period

contraction

blood transfusion

biology

antenatal

license

breast cancer

breastfeeding

obstetricians

career