

Women's Month

Across

- 2. In South Africa, _____ laws were a form of an internal passport system designed to segregate the population between Blacks from Whites in South African
- 5. It was not until the introduction of the Constitution of South Africa in 1996 that all women in South Africa were formally recognized as _____ citizens.
- 9. "Now that you have touched the women, you have a struck a _____, you have dislodged a boulder, you will be crushed."
- 10. The march also made several female leaders visible in the struggle against apartheid, particularly Lilian Ngoyi and _____ Joseph.
- 11. When _____ Nyong'o won the Oscar for best supporting actress in 2014 for her performance in 12 Years a Slave, it wasn't just a star being born. It also inspired a movement of self-love and of celebrating being unique.

- 12. Fatima _____ is noted for writing the first authorised biography of Nelson Mandela called Higher than Hope and received numerous awards throughout her lifetime.
- 14. Protests started as early as 1950 when rumours of the new _____ were leaked in the press.
- 15. Caster _____ is a 2016 Olympic gold medalist and was included in the 21 Icons third series that same year, celebrating the country's inspiring leaders.
- 16. Cheryl _____ was a member of the South African Black Students Association and in high school. She embarked on a campaign to replace the conventional prefect system with democratic elections for a Students' Representatives Council.

Down

- 1. Graça _____, 74, is one of the most powerful and historic women in Africa. Her first platform was as the minister of education in Mozambique, a position she held from 1975 to 1989.

- 3. Appointed as SA's first female deputy president in June 2005, _____ Mlambo-Ngcuka has a long history of fighting for education and women's rights.
- 4. _____ du Toit became the first athlete with a disability in history to qualify for the final of an able-bodied event.
- 6. In 1998, the Department of Arts, Culture, Science, and Technology (DASCT), created the _____ of the Women of South Africa.
- 7. As one of the first South Africans to make it onto the Hollywood scene, Charlize _____ has made her mark on the film industry and stolen the hearts of millions around the globe.
- 8. The significance of this march still reigns today in South Africa's _____ celebration of National Women's Day in regards and respect to that very day on August 9th 1956.
- 13. Zenzile Miriam _____ was one of South Africa's most influential singers of all time. She was also an important civil rights activist - a title which saw her exiled from her country for several years.