

Word Bank FPS

Across

2. one who is fluent in a single language
 5. scientific study of a language and its structure such as morphology
 12. a list of words, usually with a definition or translation, such as a dictionary
 15. when a language is not passed down from grandparent to child any longer
 17. a group of linguistics who study sentence structure and govern how words are combined to create grammatically correct sentences
 19. rules that outline the rules of a language as it should be used and establishes what is and isn't correct use

20. a group of linguistics who are focused on the study of the forms of words, such as how words are built using prefixes and suffixes

Down

1. one who studies a language and its structure
 3. a set of symbols used to represent statements (such as hieroglyphs)
 4. the study of language in its social content - including dialects etc.
 6. a language that is learnt by a person after learning his/her native language semantics, the study of learning languages
 7. a branch of linguistics who concern themselves with the classification of speech sounds
 8. first language, native language

9. a group of people who share a set of norms and expectations concerning the use of a language

10. a level of language endangerment in which most children speak the language yet some places restrict the language (such as schools)
 11. the area stretching from the larynx through the nose and mouth which is used to filter sound
 13. a language spoken in all parts of the country that is not necessarily the most commonly spoken or the official language
 14. to express text or words in another language
 16. when a community processes to a different language
 18. one who moves from one place to another - especially for work