

Word Search Civics

Across

- 3. This is a power that only the executive branch has. It can be abolished by the person who orders it in his, or her term, or by the next person in office. Similarities
- 4. Federal law is more powerful than state, or local law why is that? Difference
- 5. This court is at the top level of all courts. Both the state and Federal government have this. Similarities
- 7. Both the state and federal government have this, but this was created after the Article of Confederation called what? This is what mostly all laws are based from. Similarities
- 8. This branch is what we the people who vote for to be president, or governor. Similarities

9. This is a position that the people of the United States of America vote to be in charge of the Country. Difference.

10. This is a group of people in charge of creating laws, but don't enforce them. Similarities

Down

- 1. Who has more control of the state federal government, or local, or state government. Difference
- 2. These are people who get chosen by the president and serve in the court for life, unless they have died.
- 6. This is a position that the state people vote to be the leader of the state, and is part of the executive branch? Difference.