

Name: _____

Date: _____

Wordle

Across

2. the practice of exchanging favors, especially in politics by reciprocal voting for each other's proposed legislation
5. an official enumeration of the population, including data such as age, occupation, race, etc. conducted every 10 years, primarily for the purpose of redrawing legislative districts
8. a legislative tactic in which the opponents of a bill speak at length in order to prevent or delay its passage
9. type of segregation that exists due to economic and residential patterns, not because of law.
10. Provisional governor of the state of Georgia

Down

1. those powers that both the Federal Government and State Governments have simultaneously Examples: power to tax, maintain courts, borrow money
3. process by which the party that controls the state government uses redistricting to its own political advantage.
4. an unelected delegate who is free to support any candidate for the presidential nomination at the party's national convention
6. a procedure for ending a debate and taking a vote
7. a belief in the power of regular people