

Words Matter

Across

1. We should not assume that a person _____ from their disability (7 letters)
4. Rather than labeling someone as having mild, moderate or _____ disability, we prefer to say a person with a disability can have limited or high support needs (7 letters)
6. Outdated term for disability (8 letters)
7. A person who uses a wheelchair is not wheelchair- _____ (5 letters)
8. If you have a question or are unsure how to support a person with a disability, this is the best thing to do (3 letters)
9. You can also say mental health _____ (9 letters)

10. We advocate for the rights of older people, not the rights of the _____ (7 letters)

11. Instead of "mental illness," please use _____ disability (10 letters) – this reflects the paradigm shift toward a more rights-based approach to disability (instead of a medical approach)

Down

2. Braille textbooks and sign language interpretation in the classroom are examples of _____ accommodations (10 letters)
3. An individual who supports a person with a disability is a personal _____ (9 letters)
5. Instead of depriving a person with a disability of the right to make decisions for him or herself, governments should invest in this kind of decision-making- (9 letters)