

Words of the Day

Across

- 3. Basically hateful. To greatly dislike. For example Scar from Lion King is like this.
- 5. This concerns with art and/or beauty. So a sunset would be an excellent example,
- 7. This is to grossly exaggerate or to make something seem bigger than they are. For example, the phrase, "I'm starving."
- 8. To be lazy or inactive. Cats typically display this nature
- 12. This a a section of a poem, similar to a paragraph in a story. A couplet has two of these.
- 13. This means to be mentally dull, or not very smart. For example Patrick Star is like this.
- 14. This is the study of words. People do this with Latin and Greek.
- 16. Something that is overused. For example, the phrase, "I love you. "

- 17. Someone who puts on an act. For example a kid acting like a grown up.
- 19. This means to approach a topic and discuss about it. A teenager might do this when talking about getting a job.
- 20. Something that is very attractive, tempting, fascinating, or charming. For example a nice warm cake.
- 22. To prevent and/or anticipate something, to avoid it. Someone might do this for a doctors appointment.
- 24. This is when leaves fall off. This happens during fall.

Down

- 1. This a large book. For example the Bible.
- 2. To encounter hardship, or just hardship. For example, climbing a mountain.
- 4. This means to support. Some one might do this for a certain cause such as equality.

- 6. This means to promote, take up, or support. Someone might do this for a cause such as equality.
- 9. This is fortification or a wall or barricade. President Trump wants one.
- 10. To be careless or not being strict. If a parent is like this then they're child might grow up to be the same way.
- 11. This basically means respect. You do this to the American Flag.
- 15. To snicker or giggle quietly. Like when you might find something funny at church.
- 18. This word means to withdraw , or to cancel. Something you wish to take back.
- 21. To be incredibly rich, and to live elaborately. For example the Kardashians live this way.
- 23. This means to be blunt or abrupt, someone can be this and come off rude.