

Work Health and Safety

Across

2. Poor lighting, unadjustable chairs, constant mouse use, sitting for too long are all examples of _____ hazards

5. The top of your computer should be at _____ level to avoid excessive bending of the neck

6. The likelihood of a hazard resulting in an injury.

8. One of the ways to identify hazards is to _____ the workplace

9. One of the responsibilities of an employer is to provide a safe _____

11. Examples of gravitational hazards include slips, trips and _____

12. Codes of _____ are practical guides which outline ways to manage specific workplace risks.

Down

1. Workers are required to follow reasonable _____ given by the PCBU

3. A frayed power cord would be an _____ hazard

4. A PCBU is a P_____ Conducting a Business or Undertaking

7. As a business owner there are _____ requirements that you must comply with.

10. Anything that may cause harm

Word Bank

Falls

Inspect

Person

Risk

Legal

Practice

Workplace

Eye

Electrical

Ergonomic

Instructions

Hazard