

Working-Class Subculture

Across

2. appreciating being apart of a group more than succeeding as an individual

9. Who dominates the education sytem?

10. what is seeing the present as more important than the future and so not having long-term goals?

11. what well known TV programme provides a mean of transmitting values, attitudes and skills needed for educational success

Down

1. seeking pleasure now rather than making sacrifices in order to get rewards in the future

3. who describes cultural deprivation as a myth and sees it as a victim blaming explanation

4. what was Operation Head Start's aim of the deprived children's to develop skills and insil achievement motivation

5. a programme aimed to tackle the problem of cultural deprivation by providing extra resourses to schools and communities in deprived areas.

6. who argues that working class subculture has four key features that act as a barrier to educational achievement

7. 'whatever will be will be'

8. according to cultural deprivation theorists, large sections of the working class have different goals, beliefs, attitudes and ..?