

Working With Young Children

Across

- 3. are simple stories in which an animal is the main character and often points out a moral lesson
- 6. also known as print script is a simple form of calligraphy.
- 11. is two or more objects that are alike in some way and therefore belong together
- 16. the study of the chain of life.
- 19. is the study of natural processes and their products
- 20. ideas formed about a relationship or object as a result of what a child learns through the senses
- 22. is when children play beside each other but not with each other
- 23. involves several children imitating others and acting out situations together
- 25. field that includes subjects that help children learn about themselves as well as other people

26. is the stage when the child will use the prop as intended while playing with other children, such as using a doll bottle pretending to feed a doll

Down

- 1. describes the expected outcome of an activity, used to plan teaching strategies
- 2. outlines specific actions and activities that will be used to meet goals and objectives
- 4. blocks that are geometric pieces that vary in color and shape.
- 5. a piece of software that can be run on the Internet from iPhone, computer, electronic tablet or other type of handheld device
- 7. is an unexpected event the teacher can use as a learning opportunity
- 8. storytelling using characters and prop cut outs of felt and placed on a felt background
- 9. is a form of play in which a single child imitates another person or acts out a situation.

- 10. contains materials and equipment that encourage children to explore various roles.
- 12. involves telling a story with body movements rather than words.
- 13. describes how you will gain the children's attention
- 14. is the first type of social play where children interact with one another while engaging in a similar activity
- 15. is a demonstration of the correct way to make a letter by writing it in the air in front of a children.
- 17. implies that some groups have less value than other groups in society
- 18. stories include animals often having some human qualities, such as animals being heroes.
- 21. stories drawn on large poster board cards.
- 24. is a group of words spoken with a lively beat

Word Bank

- |                    |               |              |                   |                   |
|--------------------|---------------|--------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| Propbox            | App           | Dramaticplay | Socialstudies     | Manuscriptwriting |
| Learningobjectives | Flipcharts    | Pantomiming  | Lessonplan        | Parallelplay      |
| Fables             | Chant         | Skywriting   | Animalstories     | Parquetryblocks   |
| Ecology            | Activeplay    | Flannelboard | Sociodramaticplay | Teachablemoment   |
| Perceptions        | Functionstage | Set          | Omission          | Science           |
| Motivation         |               |              |                   |                   |