

Worksheet

Across

2. A recognize a distinction or differentiate.

3. A counterbalancing influences by which an organization or system is regulated, typically those ensuring that political power is not concentrated in the hands of individuals or groups.

8. A showing a great deal of variety or very different.

10. A person clever or original and inventive.

11. A group of people that seeks to influence public policy on the basis of a particular common interest or concern.

13. Where the powers and responsibilities are divided among the legislative branch, executive branch, and judicial branch.

14. A relating to the running of a home or to family relations.

15. A democratic governmental systems is to enact laws that determine which conduct will be considered illegal and subject to prosecution.

16. The federal principle or system of government.

Down

1. The system of federal courts and judges that interprets laws made by the legislative branch and enforced by the executive branch.

4. A review by the US Supreme Court of the constitutional validity of a legislative act.

5. A doctrine in political theory that government is created by and subject to the will of the people.

6. A branch of government exercising authority in and holding responsibility for the governance of a state.

7. A commercial transactions or traffic that cross state boundaries or that involve more than one state.

9. An activity or purpose natural to or intended for a person or thing.

12. The principle that the greater number should exercise greater power.