

World Geography Vocab

Across

- 5. , anything that causes people to move to a place
- 7. , latitude and longitude are two grid coordinates by which you can locate any point on earth
- 9. , anything that causes people to move away from a place
- 11. latitude line that runs through the center of the planet and divides it into the northern and southern hemisphere
- 13. , when a group of people or animals moves from one area to another (TWO WORDS)

- 14. , farming; the science and business of cultivating soil, producing crops, and raising livestock
- 15. , longitude line that runs through Greenwich England and divides the earth into the eastern and western hemisphere

Down

- 1. , measurement of population of people per unit
- 2. , a map that shows physical features such as mountains, rivers, deserts, and etc
- 3. , any product that comes from nature

- 4. , runs north and south along the surface of earth the line measures how far the prime meridian
- 6. , long term average weather in an area and the average precipitation and temperature
- 8. , the beliefs, traditions, laws, art food, and the ways of living that a group of people share
- 10. , a map that shows political features such as cities, countries, towns, villages, and etc.
- 12. , land suitable for agriculture and growing crops