

World Geography Vocabulary

Across

- 5. is typically defined as a group of two or more roughly adjacent metropolitan areas, which may be somewhat separated or may merge into a continuous urban region
- 7. describes the spread of one culture's practices, beliefs, and/or items, like food, music, or tools
- 13. is the distribution of human activities across the landscape and the spatial relationship between these activities
- 14. is defined by feelings and prejudices that may or may not be true

15. the result of the restriction of a culture from the outside cultural influences

Down

- 1. the ability to function effectively in more than one culture, such as knowing multiple languages
- 2. is a trend where two cultures that interact a lot start to appear more similar to each other
- 3. refers to the physical and human geographic characteristics that distinguish a particular place
- 4. process in which there is an increase in the number of people living and working in a city or metropolitan area

6. the movement of people from one permanent home to another

8. the process of moving to a new country or region with the intention of staying and living there

9. is a type of economy where products, prices, and services are determined by the market, not the government

10. is an area of land that has common features

11. refers to people or objects native to a certain region or environment

12. the social characteristics and statistics of a human population